PEI’s newest music festival is Cloggeroo – the Island Folk Festival. This festival takes place in Georgetown with shows in the beautiful public gardens in the afternoon and headline shows on the waterfront in the evening. More festivals information at www.tourismpei.com/pei-festivals-and-events

Festivals & Events

It’s hard to believe how many festivals and events Prince Edward Island has in the run of a year! We have music and culinary festivals, big concerts, theatre productions, and intimate shows. Don’t miss out on some of our biggest events such as the Cavendish Beach Music Festival, the Fall Flavours Festival, the PEI International Shellfish Festival, the PEI Bluegrass and Old Time Music Festival, Summerside Lobster Carnival, Highland Storm and the Festival of Small Halls.

In this section you will find our events divided into three groups: Signature Events, All-Season Events, and the Events Calendar. Please keep in mind, new festivals and events are added all the time, so this is just a highlight reel of what’s coming up.

While you’re here, make sure you check our website www.tourismpei.com and also be sure to pick up a copy of the Island’s free and informative entertainment paper, The Buzz to learn more about the latest events and festivals.

Fall Flavours, Summerside
Experience the Island through one of our many festivals and events showcasing culinary, culture, music and more!
Ask an Islander

Q: Where can I find authentic Acadian meat pie? - Hal B.
A: If you are looking for the real deal Acadian meat pies, head to the Wellington, Mont-Carmel, Abram-Village areas of Prince Edward Island—the Évangéline Region. This region is the Acadian homeland of the Island—you will find a good meat pie here! You can also try Country Oven in Miscouche or the Water Street Bakery in Summerside. Some other Acadian specialties to look for—râpure with molasses, and chicken fricot. 😊 - Jeff McCourt

Ready to celebrate? For the first time ever, the Congrès mondial acadien is coming to Prince Edward Island! The festivities begin in PEI on August 10th and run till noon on August 15th. The event continues in Southeastern New Brunswick from August 15 -24. As an international gathering, the festival shines a light on the lively Acadian culture and promises a great time for anyone interested in Acadie! Kick-off begins with huge opening celebrations in Abram-Village with a variety of activities throughout the day and a big musical show in the evening. Community programming and family reunion events will continue through to August 18th in communities across PEI. Commemoration Day in Miscouche will feature big musical performances, along with a sound and light show projected on the Miscouche church at nightfall. Join thousands of festival-goers in the celebration of this vibrant culture.

Acadians adopted a flag and national anthem during the 1884 National Convention in Miscouche.
