Rest assured! Tourism operators in PEI are committed to the quality and cleanliness of their properties. Islanders take great pride and time to ensure your accommodation or camping site is comfortable and well maintained.

All accommodations and camping sites listed in this guide have been inspected and licensed to ensure they meet the province’s and industry’s standards. Before booking a property not listed in this guide, please confirm that it is inspected and licensed.

A list of all PEI licensed accommodations can be found at www.gov.pe.ca/qts. Look for a posted license prior to check-in. It is your assurance that cleanliness and standards of safety have been met.

It is illegal to operate an unlicensed accommodation (fixed roof or camping) on PEI. Government and Industry are committed to ensuring the cleanliness and safety of your accommodations.

Our www.tourismpei.com website is updated regularly. New properties are added throughout the year, as they are licensed.

Information contained in this guide has been supplied by operators and accuracy of descriptions is not guaranteed. Details included in listings are meant to assist consumers in making choices.

Smoking is prohibited in Prince Edward Island’s public places. Please check with accommodation operators prior to booking for their smoking policies.

CANNABIS CONSUMPTION
There are four cannabis retail outlets on Prince Edward Island. You must be 19 years or older in order to purchase or use cannabis.

It is illegal to use cannabis in public spaces. Please be sure to check with the accommodation owner about the rules on cannabis consumption on a particular property before booking an accommodation. It is possible that cannabis consumption may be restricted by the owner/operator; many properties are smoke-free. If permitted by the owner/operator, consumption is permitted in a private dwelling for adults 19+. Private dwellings include tourism accommodations. In tourism accommodations: campgrounds and/or fixed roof, if permitted by the operator, a person may consume 1) on their rented space, or 2) on a space designated by the operator for smoking consumption. It’s illegal to drive while impaired by cannabis. It is also illegal for you and your passengers to use cannabis in any vehicle (car, boat, off-road vehicle, etc.) whether it is moving or not.

The program is voluntary and criteria based. Many operators who choose not to participate also welcome cyclists. Please inquire at time of booking.

CANADA SELECT
In each of the five colour-coded regions, accommodations are listed alphabetically according to their rating category. Most listings show a Canada Select rating (★★★★★), which is based on a set of nationally accepted standards. If you stay at a three-star property elsewhere in Canada, you will find a PEI three-star property comparable. Ratings measure a property’s facilities, services, quality and amenities.

Based on consumer research, the national rating program Canada Select revises the criteria it uses to assess accommodation properties and determine star ratings. Please read the property descriptions to ensure the amenities you are looking for are available.

For more information see www.canadaselect.com.

STAR CATEGORIES / DEFINITIONS:
Hotel/Motel (H/M) – These properties offer private bath and a range of guest facilities, services and amenities.

Resort (R) – Destination properties which offer extensive recreational activities, on-site dining and private bath as well as many additional services.

Cottage (C) - Self-contained units offering private baths and cooking facilities (or provisions for dining on site). Units may be detached or linked, and include houses and housekeeping apartments, suites, apartments, condos and vacation homes.

Bed & Breakfast (B&B)
Tourist Home (TH) - Private residences. Guest room is private. Bathrooms are exclusive to visitors and may be shared or private. Breakfast is available at B&Bs. Tourist Homes/Farm and Guest Homes and are not required to serve breakfast.

Inn (I) - Properties offer breakfast and an evening meal on premises, and private en suite bath facilities. Some may use the term “inn” as part of their name, but are actually categorized as B&B.

CAMPING SELECT
Campgrounds are rated using a two-tier system: facilities/services (F) evaluates entrance, laundry, restrooms, roadways, grounds, security, store, and general quality; recreation (R) evaluates programs, activities and recreational facilities, and is scored separately.

For more information on the Camping Select Program see www.campingselect.ca.
